

Hermena F. Clark (1914–1998) was a devoted member of the Board of the Greater Roslindale Health Organization, Inc. and a cherished, respected figure in our community. As a caregiver to more than 60 foster children, Mrs. Clark's compassion and commitment touched countless lives across generations. Despite facing physical challenges, she remained active, engaged, and an unwavering advocate for underserved individuals in our neighborhoods. Her legacy continues to inspire.

The Hermena F. Clark Service Award honors an individual who has selflessly contributed to the health and well-being of the Hyde Park, Roslindale, and/or West Roxbury communities.
